

OUR CONTRIBUTORS

ADRIAN ARNOLD is Deputy Governor of the psychiatric prison at Grendon Underwood, Bucks. An M.A. of Cambridge he has served earlier at Usk Borstal, Goudhurst D.C., Latchmere R.C., Wormwood Scrubs and Ashford R.C. and as Commandant of a detention camp in Cyprus and Superintendent of the open prison camp in Nigeria, starting the first open borstal while there. He becomes a Simon Research Fellow at Manchester University in October and went to California in July for preliminary work in this research field, namely, in "The Therapeutic Community Process in Penal Establishments."

DR. MARY S. A. COLLIS has had many years in general practice and as medical officer to a large engineering firm. She has been a J.P. for 26 years and a member of the Marriage Guidance movement since its inception in 1938. Under its auspices she has taken part in a number of pre-release courses on marriage and family life in both a corrective training and a local prison.

E. A. TOWNDROW is Governor of Blundeston. He has served at Camp Hill, Gaynes Hall, Hollesley Bay, Wakefield and Portsmouth.

THOMAS R. CARNEGIE, B.SC.(LOND), and Youth Diploma (Swansea), after several years in Youth and Community Centre Work joined the Borstal Service at Hollesley Bay in 1952.

He went to Canada in 1957 to work in the Clinical Wing of Millbrook Reformatory and on his return was posted to Rochester as a Housemaster, and is now Deputy Governor there.

PETER L. NOKES, a sociologist who is associated with the Staff College of the Prison Service, is at the Nuffield Centre for Hospital and Health Service studies at Leeds University. After graduating in anthropology at Cambridge he spent two years as research sociologist at Belmont Hospital Social Rehabilitation Unit (now the Henderson Hospital). He has also taught at the Home Office Classifying School at Kingswood, Bristol.

MISS A. M. MORGAN joined the Prison Service in 1939 at Holloway, and has served at Aylesbury, Durham and Manchester, having been a Chief Officer, at Holloway, for the past eight years. Her hobbies include travel, reading and Civil Defence work.

The issue of January 1965 includes

● FEATURES

AN EXPERIMENT IN PRISON VISITING
GROWING UP IN PRISON
CORRECTIONAL SYSTEMS AND NATIONAL VALUES