

OUR CONTRIBUTORS

A. HEALEY was appointed Industrial Adviser to the Prison Department and is a member of the Advisory Council on the Employment of Prisoners. He was previously the Industrial Director of one of the largest British Industrial groups.

MARY BRITTAİN is a principal officer at H.M.P. Styal.

CYRIL JENKINS joined the Prison Service in 1939 and served at Brixton until 1958 when he became Principal Officer at Wandsworth.

JOHN R. ILLSLEY was Acting Warden of the Tonbridge Boys' Club in St. Pancras before the war. From 1936-40 he ran a probation hostel and later was concerned with the Oxford House in Bethnal Green. He has been a member of the Barge Boys' Club committee and treasurer of the Norman House scheme since its inception. He is a member of the London Stock Exchange.

"JAMES GOEHEGEN" is the nom-de-plume of a prison medical officer.

PAT HOOPER, Senior Psychologist at H.M.P. Holloway, trained at London University and the Tavistock Clinic.

RICHARD HAUSER, at present the Director of the Centre for Group Studies, London, was formerly Chief of UNRRA Welfare for Displaced Persons in Italy; went on to establish the Psychiatric Rehabilitation Association of Australia in 1955 and similar developments in Britain where he and his wife have lived since 1957. Describing their work as Comparative Sociology, the Hausers have evolved community activation and group-work methods that are now being applied through pilot schemes in 11 countries. In addition to The Homosexual Society, based on a survey he carried out for the Home Office in 1958, RICHARD HAUSER has written jointly with his wife an account of their work in The Fraternal Society, published in 1962.

The issue of January 1964 includes

● FEATURES

PRISONS IN DENMARK
CRIME IN HONG KONG
BLACKFRIARS SETTLEMENT
MEMORIES OF SIR LIONEL FOX

● YOUR CONTRIBUTIONS

Articles from you are wanted by The Editor —
they are the life-blood of this Journal.