

2004

Mapping the faith-based voluntary sector working with the Prison Service

Results of a consultation survey for faith-based organisations working in prisons. Findings from the second stage of the mapping (January)

By Roger Grimshaw and Natasha Thomas

A survey of probation areas and their services for young parents' in Young parents: from custody to community. A guide to policy and practice

By Joanne Sherlock, Prison Reform Trust and Natasha Thomas

Media Image, Community Impact. Assessing the impact of media and political images of refugees and asylum seekers on community relations in London

Report of a pilot research study. Commissioned by the Mayor of London

By Roger Grimshaw, Kirsteen Tait, Kate Smart, and Barbara Nea

2003

Monitoring the effect of the Gloucestershire Local Education Authority Policy on the Education of Children with a Parent or Close Relative in Prison

A report to the Diana, Princess of Wales Memorial Fund.

By Liz Dibb, William Kay, and Roger Grimshaw

Radio Feltham 999 AM. An evaluation of the first prison radio in the UK 1993-2002

Report for the Gulbenkian Foundation.

By Roger Grimshaw, Jackie King, Gemma Pegg and Sarah Bainbridge

Social and therapeutic horticulture in secure settings

Reading: Thrive.

By Roger Grimshaw and Jackie King

Camden youth crime reduction audit

Report for the Camden Community Safety Partnership.

By Roger Grimshaw and Jackie King

Evaluation of the 'Local crime: Community sentence' project pilot

Final full report.

By Roger Grimshaw and Jackie King

Mapping voluntary faith-based activity and organisations in prisons: a survey of chaplains

Findings from the first stage of the mapping.

By Roger Grimshaw with Leslie Sanchez

2002

Evaluating work with offenders: current approaches to evaluating the voluntary and community sector's contribution

A research report for the Home Office. A project supported by The Home Office Innovative Research Challenge Fund 2000-1.

By Roger Grimshaw and Andrea Kilvington

Accommodation and offending - What Works? An international literature review

Report to the Home Office.

By Roger Grimshaw, Gemma Pegg and Jackie King

Evaluation of the First Night in Custody Project, HMP Holloway

Final report. London: Prison Advice and Care Trust.

By Roger Grimshaw, Jackie King, Sarah Salmon, and Andrea Kilvington

Detention and training. Assessment of the Detention and Training Order and its impact on the secure estate across England and Wales

London: Youth Justice Board.

By Ann Hagell, Neal Hazel, Mark Liddle, Roger Grimshaw, Debbie Archer, and Jackie King

Unlocking the doors to information. An assessment of information resources and support materials for families and friends of prisoners, and for professionals working with them, in the UK, Europe, USA, and other English-speaking countries

A report for Action for Prisoners' Families (2002).

By Roger Grimshaw and Jackie King

The impact of 'Payback', the campaign for community penalties (1999-2001)

Report to Payback Campaign.

By Roger Grimshaw and Gemma Pegg

2000

Drug treatment in prison: an evaluation of the RAPt treatment programme

Winchester: Waterside Press (2000)

By Carol Martin and Elaine Player

Referral and selection for resettlement provision: a study of current practice and possible innovations

A report for HM Prison Service

By Roger Grimshaw and Andrea Kilvington

Adolescent sexual abusers and offenders in Inner London: a review and audit of need and provision

A report for Inner London Youth Justice Services

By Roger Grimshaw and Sarah Salmon

1999

British Directory of Criminology 1999

Third edition of the indispensable guide to UK institutions in which criminology is taught and researched, and the courses available, together with the individuals involved and their research interests. Published in association with the British Society of Criminology. Edited by Anstey Aizlewood and Roger Tarling. 180 pages. (ISBN: 0 901541 591)

Taking the prison service into the 21st century

Martin Narey. Taken from a speech given by Martin Narey, Former Director General of HM Prison Service at the 10th Annual Eve Saville Memorial Lecture May 1999

Local authority secure units in England and Wales: profiles of regimes and programmes

A report for the Youth Justice Board

By Roger Grimshaw, Ingrid Johnston and Andrea Kilvington

1998

The incorporation of the european convention on human rights

Lord Williams of Mostyn QC. Address to ISTD's AGM on November 4th 1997. 8 pages. Published January 1998 (ISBN: 0 901541 49 4)

Criminal justice and public opinion

AGM address 1998, given by Lord Hurd of Westwell CH CBE

Building safer communities

This comprises edited papers from our conference The implications of the Crime and Disorder Act held in June 1998. Contributors include: Mike Ashley (Local Government Association), Jon Bright (Social Exclusion Unit), Michael Hough (South Bank University), George Kelling (Rutgers University), Alun Michael (Home Affairs Minister) and Helen Reeves (Victim Support). Edited by Peter Francis and Penny Fraser. c200pages. (ISBN: 0 901541 57 5)

Child sexual abuse: providing for victims, coping with offenders

The report combines papers from two conferences, Child sexual abuse: is anyone listening? and Practical issues when dealing with sex offenders in the community. They are published at a time of intense public debate about how we protect our children. Contributors include: Sir William Utting, Chair, Children's Safeguards Review; Ray Wyre, Principal Adviser to the Lucy Faithfull Foundation; Dr Michele Elliott, Director, Kidscape; Terry Oates, Cheshire Constabulary; Nick Davies, investigative journalist; Allan Levy QC. Edited by Stephanie Hayman. 104 pages. (ISBN: 0 901541 54 0)

CCJS handbook of community programmes

Compiled and edited by Carol Martin. This is the second edition of the successful Handbook of Community Programmes for Young and Juvenile Offenders. Information included in this edition comprises programmes across the UK (including Scotland and Northern Ireland for the first time) for young people aged 10-25. The 300+ schemes and projects described are aimed not only at young and juvenile offenders but those considered to be 'at risk'. Programmes covered include those for drug and alcohol misusers, motor projects, accommodation and fostering, bail support, sex offenders, outdoor pursuits and leisure activities, employment, training and educational opportunities and many others. c400 pages. (ISBN: 0 901541 53 2)

A guide to setting up and evaluating programmes for young offenders

Ed. Simon Merrington. Foreword by James McGuire. This guide is the perfect companion to the Handbook of Community Programmes for Young and Juvenile Offenders (2nd edition) and has been written as a source book for practical advice. Information is given on: how to set up a programme from scratch; what works and what doesn't work in programme design and implementation; how to define the target group; where to seek funding; how to draw up aims and objectives; how to assess staffing requirements and attract referrals; how to build in monitoring and evaluation criteria. (ISBN: 0 901541 55 9)

Deaths of offenders: the hidden side of justice

Ed. Alison Leibling. Includes papers originally given at the third international conference Deaths of Custody held at Brunel University. This third publication contains new material from the United Kingdom and other countries about deaths of offenders/detainees in the community as well as in police, prison or special hospital custody. The book includes professional and personal accounts by people who have been involved with such deaths through their role in the criminal justice or judicial processes, or because of their involvement with or relationship to people who have died in such circumstances. 260 pages. (ISBN: 0 901541 48 6)

Imprisoning women: recognising difference

Ed. Stephaine Hayman. Collected and edited papers from a conference held at HMP & YOI Styal in October 1997. Contributors include Dr Silvia Casale, criminologist; Marie-Andree Drouin, Grand Valley Institution for Women, Canada; Kate Donegan & Moira McAlpine, HMP Cornton Vale; Olga Heaven, FPWS/Hibiscus; Rosemary King, Head of Psychology, HMP Holloway; Elaine Player, King's College London; Carole Rigby, WISH; Chris Tchaikovsky, Women in Prison. (ISBN: 0 901541 51 6)

The forgotten children: young people in prison

Selected and edited papers from three ISTD conferences held in 1997 at HM YOI Stoke Heath, HM YOI Portland and King's College London, which looked at the needs of imprisoned juveniles and young offenders. Contributors include Joyce Quin MP, Minister of State, Home Office; Sir David Ramsbotham, HM Chief Inspector of Prisons; David Waplington, Governor HMYOI Moorland; Juliet Lyon, Trust for the Study of Adolescence; Norman Tutt, Social Information Systems; Mary Graham, Atkinson Secure Unit; Mark Grindrod, the Howard League

1997

Sentencing in the 80s and 90s: the struggle for power

The eighth Eve Saville Memorial Lecture, given by Professor Andrew Ashworth, Edmund Davis Professor of Criminal Justice at King's College London in May 1997. (ISBN: 0 901541 54 8)

Repairing the damage: restorative justice in action

Ed. Stephanie Hayman. Introduction by Martin Wright. Collected and edited papers from ISTD conference held in Bristol in March 1997. Contributors: Mark Umbreit (University of Minnesota), Tony Marshall (Home Office), Caroline Nicholl (Thames Valley Police) and Lesley Moreland. 30 pages. (ISBN: 0 901 541 46X)

1996

Deaths in custody: caring for people at risk

Ed. Alison Liebling. Published by Whiting & Birch. Contributions from: Sir Louis Blom-Cooper, Ian Dunbar, Lindsey Hayes, Alison Liebling, David McDonald, Gethin Morgan, Rod Morgan, David Neal, Terry Waite and selected seminar papers from the ISTD conference organised in Cambridge in 1994. 226 pages

Inspectorate independence: desirable or essential?

AGM 1996 Address by Sir David Ramsbotham, HM Chief Inspector of Prisons

1995

Between prison and probation: the development of intermediate sanctions in western countries

Eve Saville Memorial Lecture 1995, given by Professor Michael Tonry, University of Minnesota

1994

The courts and the challenges of the multi-cultural society* (1994)

Eve Saville Memorial Lecture 1994 given by Lord Justice Brooke, Chairman of the Law Commission

Psychopathy: a legal and clinical dilemma

AGM 1994 Address by Dr John Reed

1993

Handling persistent young offenders: next steps

Eve Saville Memorial Lecture 1993 given by John Harding, Chief Probation Officer, Inner London Probation Service

1992

HISTORY OF ISTD

David Rumney and Eve Saville. Ed. Adrian Arnold. 144pp

UNDERSTANDING THE PAEDOPHILE (1989)

Published Jointly with the Portman Clinic. 32pp