

Alternatives to custody in Europe The UK picture since 2000

National workshop, Centre for Crime and Justice Studies, 20 June

At: the Meeting Place, Ground Floor, 2 Langley Lane, London, SW8 1GB

9.30 – 10.00      Arrivals, coffee

10.00 – 11.15      Session one: *Net-widening and greater punitiveness:
developments in community justice*

- Catherine Heard, Centre for Crime and Justice Studies
- Savas Hadjipavlou, Director and Chief Executive, Probation Institute
- Jo Easton, Head of Policy & Research, Magistrates' Association

11.15 – 11.30      Break

11.30 – 12.30      Session two: The growth in electronic monitoring and GPS tracking; consequences for the future for resettlement and rehabilitation

- Professor Anthea Hucklesby, Leeds University, on the research her team has carried out on UK policy and practice (part of a wider EU comparative study)

12.30 – 13.30      Lunch

13.30 – 14.15      Session three: Women's centres, their role in delivering effective programmes

- Dr Nicola Carr, Queen's University, Belfast, on the Inspire project in Northern Ireland

14.15 – 14.30      Break

PTO

CENTRE FOR CRIME AND JUSTICE STUDIES

14.30 – 15.30      Session 4: *Assessing the maturity of young adults; what does good practice look like?

- Amy Hall, Greater Manchester and Cheshire CRC, presents case histories of work with young adults

15.30 – 16.00      Summary and next steps

Please note: there will be roughly 30 minutes for questions and discussion after each session.

Twitter: #prisonalternatives

Wifi: CCJS-STAFF

Password: 3L3M3NT1972