

THE MIKE GUILFOYLE PRIZE

Essay writing Competition

Mike Guilfoyle spent over 20 years as a probation officer and later a magistrate. Mike was a passionate Napo member and also known for his insightful articles for CCJS on probation practice capturing the essence of a service built on the values of "advise, assist and befriend."

What does professionalism
mean in probation?

Closing date:
28 March 2025

The Mike Guilfoyle Essay Prize, co-organised by Napo and CCJS, honours Mike's legacy and encourages reflections on the values of the probation practice. Open to serving, former, and trainee probation staff.
